There are plenty of guides on the market that claim to hold the secret to getting rich. But this book is different – Get Smarter offers advice as to how to make better, more informed career and personal decisions, resulting in the well-roundedness necessary for successful financial ventures. Penned by Seymour Schulich, one of North America's most astute, savvy, and colorful businessmen and philanthropists, this guide draws from personal experience to educate business-minded young people. In 49 concise and easy chapters, Schulich describes the importance of keeping one's outlook flexible, so that opportunities are not missed. He describes successful methods for decision-making, relationships, career choices, dealing with adversity, and exploring investment options. Get Smarter extends beyond the category of business strategy; Schulich's recommendations will serve those looking to get rich — both in business and in life.
