Gail Benedict is a fiercely moral and independent-minded woman, who hates everything Ralph stands for. Strangers and estranged, the first time they set eyes on each other since childhood is at the wedding neither wants. That unlikely union provokes entanglements and clashes with powerful, unforgettable characters, deeds of deception and passion, betrayal and love, and riveting suspense as Ralph must uncover the terrible truth about his earlier generations' greed and ambition and prove his innocence when a deadly catastrophe strikes the project.
