When Kate's beloved father passes away, she must return to the city to take ownership of his finance company and precious NHL team. To take her mind off of her newfound responsibilities, her crazy best friend, Piper, takes her out. Unfortunately, Kate finds herself in over head when the wild-night leads to a single kiss with a stranger. Only days later, she learns who he truly is: someone completely and utterly off-limits if she's to keep everything she's worked so hard for. Kate's quickly led into a whirlwind of secrecy, moral conflict, and outside judgments. With the help of Piper, she finds herself maneuvering through life, protecting her father's legacy, and finding what love looks like.
