Every family with young kids will relate to this story about growing up and exploring the world

Look see, look at me.

I'm so much bigger now I'm three.

I can run, I can jump, I can skip, I can bump . . .

Lively and engaging illustrations and a terrific read-aloud text create a delightful celebration of outback family life in an Aboriginal community. It perfectly captures a child's everyday life—wonderful for sharing with a toddler over and over again.
