The Crush Kendra Reeves

Composed and confident, Sofie Roberts is thrown for a loop when she runs into the one man who makes her feel like the weak-kneed, starry-eyed young girl she'd been years before—her childhood crush, Bryant Lewis. Seeing him all these years later makes her realize the feelings she'd had for him are still as strong as they were back then. Bryant Lewis is surprised and impressed when he has a chance encounter with Sofie Roberts. She is no longer the shy, quiet girl he remembers from the neighborhood. She has grown into a sexy, confident woman. The attraction he felt from the moment he bumped into her was something he couldn't deny. Now that she is an adult and has the opportunity to tell Bryant her secret will Sofie take the risk of being rejected and embarrassed, or should she just let the old crush be just that—her secret? Bryant has been stung—painfully—by a woman in the past. He isn't looking for anything serious, but the electricity that sizzles between him and Sofie is something that can't be ignored. Is he willing to move act on that attraction? What happens when two people make a connection? When the desire that burns between them becomes so hot that sparks begin to jump? Will the crush be the start of a journey of desire and seduction, or will Sofie and Bryant let their fears and past hurts keep them from exploring where this chance encounter could take them?
