Discordia, the Roman goddess of discord, haunts battlefields and delights in human bloodshed. Discordia lives in Rapture Comeaux, a woman who is one breakup from a nervous breakdown. When Richard enters her life, she believes her one true love has finally come. But through deceptive practices & contempt against her heart, Rapture finds out that no man can be redeemed of his sins, except through death. Her wrath is relentless and her bitterness for those men who have wronged her in the past grows into monstrous proportions. She walks the earth like much like the goddess of strife, with her head striking the heavens, among the onslaught as her mere presence makes men's pain heavier. Who will stop her? Only one person knows the connection between the slayings, but will it be told? Rapture is no longer the rational strong Black woman she once was, she is now Discordia, A Black Female Serial Killer.
