Mia Kosher was living the life she'd planned ever since she went away to college in New York City. She had found the job of her dreams and had fun with family and friends. There wasn't a man in her future, until the morning she stepped into the elevator at work and met Drake Flint. After that nothing was the same. As Mia and Drake enter new territory, they are on for the ride of their lives, complete with ups, downs, and a foe from the past looking to destroy their new relationship.
