Excerpt from A Rambling Sketch in and About Laguna and Arch Beaches, Orange County, California

Laguna Beach is one of the oldest beaches on the Southern coast, where the early pioneers from the interior gathered for their picnics and vacations in horse-drawn vehicles, but on account of it being off the main traveled road, kept its growth back for a decade. Now, that we have automobiles, and count time instead of miles, distance no longer lends enchantment to the view, as will be exemplified to those who visit this beautiful and charming beach. Passing through Laguna canyon you will notice mammoth boulders on each side of the boulevard, grotesque and fantastical in their many shapes and figures, like elves and fairies in a ring, seeming to beckon you on to the water front, where Nature has builded well for all lovers of beautiful surroundings.

Although it is least known of the Southern beaches, because of its distance from Los Angeles and interior cities, the lover of outdoor grandeur and scenic wonders, will find more to enthrall him at Laguna and Arch Beaches than at any other watering spot on the South coast. La Jolla. San Diego county, is a close rival in relative beauty.
