Belief and Its Neutralization: Husserl's System of Phenomenology in Ideas I (Sunny Series in Contemporary Continental Philosophy) Marcus Brainard

Presenting the first step-by-step commentary on Husserl's Ideas I, Marcus Brainard's Belief and Its Neutralization provides an introduction not only to this central work, but also to the whole of transcendental phenomenology. Brainard offers a clear and lively account of each key element in Ideas I, along with a novel reading of Husserl, one which may well cause scholars to reconsider many long-standing views on his thought, especially on the role of belief, the effect and scope of the epoche, and the significance of the universal neutrality modification."
