Babl Children's Books in Spanish and English

“I like your buttons, Mrs. Sutton-Jones!” Kind words can be contagious. Cassandra’s simple compliment to her teacher starts off a chain reaction of kindness through the teachers and students at school, adults at work, and families at home. Soon, the entire neighborhood is in a good mood! Cassandra’s kindheartedness comes full circle when her father comes home with a surprise, which Cassandra inadvertently helped happen. Learn how quickly kind words can spread and how easy it is to be a nice person, all while learning a new language!

Reviews

“What goes around, comes around—literally, figuratively, every which way in this do-good, feel-good title.”
- Kirkus

“This simple but compelling story teaches children that a smile and a kind word gives people a sense of pride in themselves and a desire to do something nice for others.” - Children’s Literature Review

“The cartoon-style art has lots of vigor and features a multiethnic community that is linked by good will.” -
