Fritz's Fish Geraldine Elschner

Fritz is too young for a pet fish. At least, that's what his parents say. But when the nearby river floods one day, Fritz gets his chance to prove them wrong. He finds a fish swimming down the street and puts it in his bathtub! Unfortunately, Fritz soon realizes that his new friend is miserable. Though Fritz tries to make the tub feel more like home, the fish just doesn't like it. In the end, he's forced to make a tough decision, but his hard work is rewarded with a special gift. Charming and undeniably cute, this little story is sure to be a splash with both young readers and parents.
