My Life in the Twentieth Century Anne Macewen

Anne MacEwen had the privilege of her early years in a Raj family in India. Having gained a Degree at Newnham College, Cambridge, she taught at Parkstone Grammar School for over twenty years. As President of the Essene Network International, she now heads a widespread group of people who are deeply committed to the Wisdom Teaching of the Essenes with their awareness of Angels. Her story is direct, sometimes humorous, sometimes sad, and challenges us to look at our own journeys through life and the influences guiding them.
