Career Gear Linda Jensvold Bauer

As a business woman and motivational speaker I was encouraged by many to put into writing, one of my presentations that was aimed at business students about to graduate from college. This quick read book gets down to brass tacks and focuses on taking charge of your destiny and building a successful career by paying attention to the basics and to the details. The message emphasizes the importance of taking the responsibility of building a career as well as enhancing one's professional reputation.
