"It has been a wonder to read such a story when I thought I knew all about it, and how it was going to end."
Worlds Without End Blog

"It is a startling work from someone so young, combining profound philosophic disquisitions with melodramatic blood and thunder." Michael Saler TLS

"The novel of "Frankenstein, or the Modern Prometheus," is undoubtedly, as a mere story, one of the most original and complete productions of the age. We debate with ourselves in wonder as we read it, what could have been the series of thoughts, what could have been the peculiar experiences that awakened them, which conducted in the author's mind, to the astonishing combination of motives and incidents and the startling catastrophe which compose this tale." Percy Bysshe Shelley

"It is a beautiful work of art that deserves the title of classic and should be read by all readers." Michael

FRANKENSTEIN is one of the most exciting and profound gothic horror stories and adventures of all time. Presented in a beautiful edition specially designed for kindle, this is Mary Shelley's masterpiece which will stay with you forever.
