How do you deal with the news that your forty year old son wants to change his sex to become a woman?

The author of this book chose to embrace the situation and help his child through the ten year process, from the beginning of hormone therapy all the way to completion-male body to female body; son to daughter. The journey was not without its difficulties but they remained best friends. Here is the journey as told by both the father and the child. Most of the photos in this version are in color.
