This book was originally entitled Help for Homeowners Facing a Home of your own. This book talks to homeowners who are facing foreclosure and are faced with questions. There are a lot of mortgage programs that will help homeowners keep their home thereby saving their home and/or their credit even if the homeowner is unemployed. There are also things a homeowner needs to know about foreclosure is that a legal action can be taken against for a foreclosure that doesn't exist. There are a lot of scams out there that the homeowner needs to be aware of especially when facing a desperate situation such as foreclosure. I talk about who you should contact and when, where to get free help, how to recognize scam artists and stop them in their tracks. What mortgage programs are out there that a homeowner can qualify for and who to talk to, and so much more. If you are facing foreclosure and need help this book will be the best investment you get for yourself and it will be well worth the cost.
