I Like Fish (Step into Reading) Margaret Wise Brown

This Step 1 reader derives from a poem by the author of Goodnight Moon, children's literature legend Margaret Wise Brown. Its simple vocabulary, rhyme and rhythm, and vivid picture clues make it perfect for emergent readers, introducing them to an inviting underwater world and a successful reading experience! G. Brian Karas has created absolutely gorgeous art vignettes to showcase the incredibly varied fish and the kids who love them.

Step 1 Readers feature big type and easy words for children who know the alphabet and are eager to begin reading.

From the Trade Paperback edition.

Wayne Joseph:

As a pupil exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's heart and soul or real their passion. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring along with can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this I Like Fish (Step into Reading) can make you experience more interested to read.
