Not by Chance But for the Glory of God J Jackson

After enduring six years of marriage to an abusive husband still attached to a destructive ex-girlfriend, this thirty year old young woman discovered that when her burden became unbearable, God was there to deliver her. In Not By Chance, But For the Glory of God, she shares her own story of God's deliverance so she can help prevent others from making the mistakes she did in choosing a mate. As a young woman, she did not seek God in every decision she made, but rather was searching for love on her own. That choice, you will see by her story, nearly cost her life.

Then God gave her a second chance.

Now she knows that every Word of God is right. She knows that God's Word does not go out void. She knows that God does not abandon or forsake.

In these pages she openly shares that knowledge with you.
