Atlas Mundial do Vinho - Ed. 2014 (Em Portugues do Brasil) Jancis Robinson / Hugh Johnson

Publicado pela primeira vez em 1971, O ATLAS MUNDIAL DO VINHO se tornou um livro de referencia por apresentar um panorama completo sobre os territorios de cultivo, caracteristicas das uvas e metodos de producao da bebida ao redor do mundo. O livro chega a sua 7 edicao com novos mapas exclusivos e textos ineditos, mantendo a abrangencia e a cuidadosa pesquisa que fizeram dele um classico.

Um destaque desta edicao e o surgimento de novas regioes produtoras em um funcao das mudancas climaticas observadas desde o lancamento da edicao anterior, em 2007. Neste periodo, a China se tornou nao so um grande consumidor de vinhos como assumiu o papel de pais produtor de uvas e da bebida, conquistando seu espaco. O livro tambem explica a atual tendencia de valorizar variedades de uvas locais, que produzem vinhos leves e menos familiares, em detrimento de uvas internacionais mais previsiveis.

E, como nao poderia deixar de ser, o atlas ajuda o leitor a entender melhor a geografia de cada regio: sao 215 mapas exclusivos, apresentando regioes como a Croacia costeira, Khaketi na Georgia, Canterbury na Nova Zelandia, Swartland na Africa do Sul, norte da Virginia nos EUA e Ningxia na China, alem de regioes produtoras classicas como Franca, Italia e Portugal.

Hugh Johnson e Jancis Robinson mais uma vez uniram forcas para criar um livro completo, que nenhum apreciador de vinho pode deixar de ter.
