Back cover text:

King Henry spoke vehemently to the Englishman:

"My race is as old as yours, m'sieu. In Saint Domingue, before we drove the French out, there were a hundred negroes to every master. Yet we were your slaves. Nowhere in the world, except in Haiti, have we resisted you. Why? Because we have no pride!

"While I live I shall try to build that pride we need, and build in terms white men as well as black can understand.

"I will teach pride if my teaching breaks every back in my kingdom!"
