Interregnum 1649-60 (Access to History) Michael Lynch

This book surveys the key features of the dramatic and still controversial period from 1649-60. It clarifies some of the more complex issues of the time and provides a guide to the overlapping political, social, religious and economic developments that occurred. It also provides a synthesis of some of the latest re-assessments of historians with regard to such issues as the role of Oliver Cromwell, the Rump Parliament and the Restoration.
