Tage Lorradan cannot stop his mind from returning to his haunting dreams of a mysterious and beautiful girl with red hair and green eyes. Why are his dreams of her so powerful and affecting? Is there a deeper meaning within them, besides their strangeness? Could the girl with red hair be more than just a dream? Vowing to discover the truth, young Tage is thrust into the centre of an ancient and deadly conflict between his own nation of Athaelkandalae, the self-righteous 'Light of the World,' and the Kastri, the people of Cybelle, the Dark Goddess. Each side views the other as less than human...and yet, it is the inhuman among both cultures—monsters and legends, demons of light and demons of darkness—who will be instrumental in deciding the fate of all. So begins Part One of The Shaman's Daughter, a visionary fantasy, and the first volume in the Cosmic Mystery Series. Combining heroic romance with mystical exploration, subversive humour with sincere emotional depth, and the unfolding of archetypes with a subtle satirical critique, The Shaman's Daughter is an epic fantasy adventure that asks us the same question Tage is asked by a girl he has only met in dreams: "Are you awake?"
