Nelli's Journey: From the Depths of Evil to Reconciliation and Beyond is a powerful story of a young girl born in Grodno, Poland. She was caught up in the horror of war and Nazi death camps, including two years in Auschwitz. She was liberated in May 1945. Her remarkable personal odyssey has taken her on a journey from Poland to Germany, Prague, London, New York and Philadelphia. Nina is the sole survivor of her immediate family and as a lonely, naïve girl she searched for the meaning of her unlikely survival. Her passion for education and knowledge led her to a life of self-education. Her formal education began when both her sons were already in college. She has questioned and attempted to understand how one goes beyond survival and turn difficult experiences into personal growth. Nelli's Journey is the inspiring story about soul-searching, living with evil, learning to embrace life with a positive outlook, reconciliation and beyond.
