The Acrobat: Arthur Barnes and the Victorian Circus John Stewart

Arthur Barnes--"The 100 Somersault Man"--was the world's greatest acrobat, a legend of the circus. He toured for 23 years with the biggest companies in Britain, Europe and the United States, performing for all the crowned heads, as well as for Abraham Lincoln. This book traces his story as a bright thread of triumphs and tragedies running through the tapestry of the mid-Victorian era, a tapestry made rich by extraordinary events of the day and by the eccentric characters attracted to such a profession as the circus. We follow Barnes as he escapes the doom of the iron foundry by bounding out of the desperate slums of the East End of London at the age of 14 to become the "champion vaulter of all the world."

As a student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or to make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's spirit or real their leisure activity. They just do what the educator want, like asked to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring along with can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country.
