The socks that don't match, the mouse asleep in the tissue box, the creepy creak upon the stair, the dying wasp on the windowsill that breaks your heart . . . These are some of the themes that David L. Harrison touches on in this unique collection of poems. Combining a wit, whimsy, and thoughtfulness, the author of the ever-popular Somebody Catch My Homework, explores both the physical stuff and the oh-so-familiar moments of home in a way that is sure to delight young readers.
