Unshakeable Beau Bishop

When Archer Hughes came back from serving his country, he didn't come back quite like he went in. The pain and trauma he saw all around him gave him scars that only few chose to see. Shane Dixon knows about the pain and trauma of returning veterans. He runs a soup kitchen to help them in their time of need. But when Archer and Shane meet and find themselves in a makeshift friendship, they fall for one another much deeper than either of them suspect. Can Shane help Archer overcome his flashbacks? Can Archer show Shane an honest love that he's never had before? By the final page in their story, they'll both realize that despite what life deals them, they are unshakeable.
