Smokechaser

Warren Yahr

Smokechaser Warren Yahr

Distributed by the University of Nebraska Press for the University of Idaho Press

Warren Yahr turned every boy's dream of being on his own into reality when he signed up to work in an isolated lookout watching over huge stands of virgin fir, pine, hemlock, cedar and spruce in Idaho back country. Yahr warmly and humorously describes how he provided for the necessities of life in the middle of the wilderness through a combination of traditional solutions and creative adaptations.
