Eden's Ore - Judgment (Volume 3) B. V. Bayly

An army of black ore users have destroyed most of the United Kingdom. They swept across the land and shattered The Church of Humanity. Now only the Spheres stand between TERA and their plans to enslave the world. It's been two years since the great assault. The Spheres have continued to fight, but their resolve is slipping. Constantly hunted by powerful black ore users, Gabriel has become a myth - a legend forced to hide in the warzones. He is accompanied by two new allies, twins, Talia and Thorne. Together they carry out extreme missions to try and keep TERA out of London, their last stronghold. The commander, Nate Reinhart, devises a plan to deliver a blow to TERA that they won't be able to recover from. With the plan, the Spheres openly engage TERA in a daring attack. They quickly realize their mistake as TERA's true target is revealed. The Spheres don't recover. Gabriel is left alone with only a rumor of a new ally - a black ore user gone rogue. Gabriel is forced back to North America, risking everything to find him.
