"This is an unusual sports story that tells how teamwork can be as useful off the field as on. The mayor of Chip Hilton's home town has called him in to ask for help. What had begun as a few isolated incidents - kids beaten up, property damaged - is developing, as summer starts, into a full scale crisis. A small group of toughs has triggered the unpleasantness. They are the sons of a tunnel digging crew temporarily settled nearby. Their acknowledged leader has even involved Chip in a fight. Chip's solution is a summer sports program that should serve as a model for any young group with aspirations to do something worthwhile for the town they live in...."
