Marine Memories: and All branches of United States Service Kathryn I. Lipsch

This book is guaranteed to bring smiles and laughter, is filled with true but short stories of memories, situations and events, all telling about personal situations in the service of defending our country. If you served as these authors did, you may relate to some of these stories as if they were your own. This book is a great gift to those who served, or to those mothers and fathers of those who served, and to the children of those who bravely served.... that they may understand the depth of that service given.
