Wait Until Midnight Virginia Pittinger

How could she have forgotten this beautiful child?

She searched the emptiness of her memory for his name. What kind of person was she to have forgotten that she even had a son? The doctor said that she had been in an accident and that her husband was dead, but she could recall nothing. Why, she didn't even know what she looked like! If only she could see, she was sure she would recognize herself and know who she truly was. But when she got out of bed and cautiously made her way to the mirror, her eyes filled with tears of disappointment. She was looking into the face of a stranger!
