Sophia: Ghostly Tales Alan Kinder-Cooke

We are all uncertain whether there really is a soul, and if there is...Does it survive death? Sophia: Ghostly Tales tries to answer questions like these in partly humorous explorations of strange events, and of our continual struggle between good and evil. However, the questions of how and why we are here are very serious matters to both scientists and philosophers. This little book is really about the way to truth; the path to understanding. Alan is inspired by Thomas Merton's Seeds of Contemplation. The book, which is adult fiction, will appeal to those interested in esotericism. "Its aim is to provide a few pointers to enlightenment," says author Alan, "to guide the way to mystic enlightenment...In a quirky way!"
