Victorian Grace knew all too well that all your actions have consequences, but she never thought to do a favor for a friend in trouble, could not only cause a ripple in her world, but could change an entire community.

Arriving at their new home in Lintel, Mississippi, Victorian and her new husband Judah Vandagg, they planned just to fade into the area barely noticed. But the best-made plan, very seldomly work out. When the newlywed couple move into a house that is known for miles around to be haunted by evil spirits, a new mother-in-law who is furious that she didn't get to pick the bride, and secrets around every corner, which make the truth seem like a dream. All Victorian can do is lean on her faith in God, and trust it will all work out for her good, all while she tries to keep track of her own secrets.
