Letters from My Soul Lynette Collins

Letters from my soul, was written over many years, it was creative, from many different emotions, some good and some not so good, some of the letters were simple through, watching something on T.V that made the writer Lynette, feel some time good and sometimes, what she had seen worried her, and she would write how it or what was happen in her life, down on paper. Still to day when she feels a bit lost in a world that can easy become too much, she find laughter, and solos in the words that she reads, that has become Letters from my soul. Some time we look for strength in the words of others.
