Miss Lilly and the Hollyhock Garden is a delightful new children's book just released by Leathers Publishing. Written and illustrated by first time author Mary Martin, this book is certain to become a favorite among children. In the book, Miss Lilly, a beautiful flower blossom, lives in the Hollyhock Garden where everyone is special in his or her own way. Every hollyhock family is a different color. But no family is lovelier than the other. Although the Garden is peaceful and happy, Miss Lilly can't help but wish she could go other places, too. One day an enormous wind hits the garden and blows Miss Lilly out into the world. And this is where her adventure begins. The hollyhock lady meets many interesting friends on her journey home.
