The Dog's Dinner: A Story of Great Mercy and Great Faith from Matthew 14-15 (Not Just A Story)

Douglas Sean O'Donnell

Have you ever gone all day without food? No food when you woke up. No food for lunch. No food after school. No food for dinner. No food before bed. Not even a midnight snack! How hungry do you think you would be if you went all day without food? You might just be hungry enough to shout, "Help! Anybody! I'm starving! Feed me."

God has always loved his people. And He has shown His love in many, many different ways. One way is through food! One day Jesus found himself surrounded by a crowd with very hungry tummies. Another day he met a woman with a very hungry heart. Find out how Jesus fed them all.
